Rittal GmbH & Co. KG

Mr Guido Stannek appointed Rittal President

Greater internationalisation of purchasing and logistics

Rittal's management team is proud to welcome Mr Guido Stannek on board. Since the start of the year, Mr Stannek has been promoted to President, with worldwide responsibility for purchasing, procurement, and logistics at the leading enclosure and system provider.

Herborn, 24 January 2013 – “With its 11 production sites worldwide and 64 subsidiaries, Rittal is a very international company”, says Mr Stannek, who has successfully been heading up the areas of Supply Chain Management, Logistics, Sourcing, and Procurement at the leading provider of enclosures and systems since autumn 2011. “Our goal is to foster globalized purchasing and logistics and to promote international networks, which is pivotal to the global growth strategy of the company.”

82 logistics centres worldwide

Efficient logistics in particular is a basic prerequisite for our ability to serve customers quickly and reliably in a global market. Even now, Rittal has 82 logistics centres worldwide, which are served by the plants in Germany, England, Italy, China, India, and the USA. In the future, the heart of the Rittal logistics system will still be beating in the vicinity of the company's headquarters: in Haiger, by 2014, about 40 million euros will be invested in the expansion and modernization of the central warehouse facility, further expanding the site.

Long-standing experience

Mr Stannek has many years of experience in the management of supply chains. Before joining Rittal, he
